

WALLETORY COOKIE POLICY

July 2024

At Walletery Pte Ltd (“Company”, “us” or “we”), we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your data. As part of this commitment, we are transparent about our use of cookies. This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and how you can control their use.

What are Cookies?

The Company, and third parties with whom we partner, may use cookies, tags, scripts, web objects, advertising identifiers (such as mobile device identifiers including but not limited to Google’s Advertising ID) and similar technology (hereinafter together referred to as just “Cookies”) during your use of our website, mobile application and social media channels. Cookies may contain unique identifiers and are stored or used in, including but not limited to, your computer or mobile device, emails we send to you, and our web pages. By using our website or mobile application, you consent to us on the usage of Cookies.

They are used to help websites remember information about your visit, such as your preferred language, the items you have placed in your shopping basket, and other preferences. Cookies can be either temporary, stored only during an individual user session (session cookies), or permanent (persistent cookies). Session cookies are deleted from your device when you close your browser, while persistent cookies remain on your device until they expire or you choose to delete them.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to help provide you with a better user experience and to improve the security and performance of our website. Some of the ways we use cookies include:

- Keeping you logged in: We use cookies to remember you when you log into our website so that you do not need to enter your login details each time you visit (if applicable);
- Improving performance: We use cookies to monitor how our website is used and to identify any technical issues. This helps us to improve the performance of our website and to make sure that it is functioning correctly;
- Personalising your experience: We use cookies to remember your preferences and settings, such as your preferred language, geographical location and your time zone. This helps us to provide you with a more personalised browsing and usage experience when you use our website and/or mobile application, and to improve the experience of displaying targeted advertising to you.

Cookies may transmit information about you and your use of our service, including but not limited to:

- IP Address;
- browser and device type;
- website or mobile application visited before you came to our website or mobile application;
- the page viewed on our website or mobile application; and
- time spent on our website or mobile application.

Third-Party Cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may use/allow third-party cookies from service providers such as Google Analytics. These cookies are used to collect information about how our website is used, including the number of visitors to a webpage and how much time they spend on it. This information is used to help us to improve our website and to understand how our users engage with our content.

Third parties may be able to associate this information with other additional information they collected about you from other sources. We do not necessarily have access to or control over the Cookies they use.

How to Control Cookies

You have control over the use of cookies on our website. You may deactivate cookies by adjusting your internet browser settings to disable, block or deactivate cookies, by deleting your browsing history and clearing the cache from your internet browser, if you do not wish for Cookies to be stored on your device. Most web browsers allow you to block or delete cookies, or to receive a warning before a cookie is stored. To learn more about Cookies and how to control them, please visit the website of your web browser's provider. You may also use third-party solution such as <https://optout.networkadvertising.org/>. You may also be able to limit our sharing of some of this information through your mobile device settings.

Please note that disabling cookies may limit your ability to use some of the features of our website.

Contact Us

If you have any questions about our use of cookies, or if you would like to opt out of our use of cookies, please do not hesitate to contact us via: support@walletery.com.
